This whakatauki was first written by Sir Apirana Ngata (Ngāti Porou) in a young woman's autograph book in 1949. Her name was Rangī Bennett and he wrote it to encourage her in her education and to achieve the highest ideals of life. Ngata believed Māori advancement would benefit by reapplying learnings from Te Ao Pākehā (the Pākehā world) to Te Ao Māori (the Māori world), ideally resulting in a positive effect on both cultures.

E Tipu E Rea

“E tipu e rea mō ngā ra ō tōu ao

Ko tō ringa, ki ngā rākau ā te Pākehā, hei ara mō tō tinana

Ko tō ngākau, ki ngā taonga ā ō tīpuna Māori, hei tikitiki mo tō māhuna

Ko tō wairua ki te Atua, nāna nei ngā mea katoa.”

“Grow up and thrive for the days destined to you

Your hands given to the tools of the pakeha as a means to sustain and support you

Your heart to the treasures of your ancestors as a plume for your head

Your spirit given to God the maker of all things.”
