Step up and become a future leader.

We're looking for passionate young Māori who are committed to succeeding in their horticultural careers.

By entering the Young Māori Grower Award, you will gain the experience and networks to:

- Improve your production skills
- Learn from leaders in Māori farming and horticulture
- Raise your industry profile
- Develop your own leadership skills
- Grow your job prospects
- Inspire others into horticultural careers.

THERE IS A CASH PRIZE POOL UP FOR GRABS AS WELL AS PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SCHOLARSHIPS!

Finalists will also attend a study tour as well as the Ahuwhenua Trophy awards dinner with travel, dinner and accommodation costs covered!

The winner will be announced at the Ahuwhenua Trophy awards dinner on 5 June 2026 in Whangarei.

This whakataukī was first written by Sir Apirana Ngata (Ngāti Porou) in a young woman's autograph book in 1949. Her name was Rangi Bennett and he wrote it to encourage her in her education and to achieve the highest ideals of life. Ngata believed Māori advancement would benefit by reapplying learnings from Te Ao Pākehā (the Pākehā world) to Te Ao Māori (the Māori world), ideally resulting in a positive effect on both cultures.

E Tipu E Rea

*“E tipu e rea mō ngā ra ō tōu ao
Ko tō ringa, ki ngā rākau ā te Pākehā, hei ara mō tō tinana
Ko tō ngākau, ki ngā taonga ā ō tīpuna Māori, hei tikitiki mo tō māhuna
Ko tō wairua ki te Atua, nāna nei ngā mea katoa.”*

*“Grow up and thrive for the days destined to you
Your hands given to the tools of the pakeha as a means to sustain and support you
Your heart to the treasures of your ancestors as a plume for your head
Your spirit given to God the maker of all things.”*

AHUWHENUA YOUNG MĀORI GROWER AWARD 2026

ENTRY FORM

1. What are the outstanding attributes and skills that have contributed to your success?

Think about what sets you apart from other employees/trainees - you might like to write about motivation, initiative, attitude, practical skills and horticultural knowledge and future career goals.

2. What tasks or responsibilities have you taken up within the business, which are over and above your normal duties?

3. Tell us about your contribution to and participation with your community/ngātikanga Māori and how you show your commitment to Māoritanga.

You may like to think about what support you provide to local hapū, marae and the wider local community.
